

Psalm 8

O LORD, our Lord, how awesome is
Your Name in all the earth;
And high above the heav'nly realm
Your glory shineth forth!

When I survey the heavens made,
The moon and stars in place,
In awe I wonder, "What is man
That you should show him grace?"

My awe yet rests upon the Son
Because You care for Him;
Though for a time He lowly dwelt,
In honour now is crowned!

You've given Him dominion o'er
The works that You have wrought;
The sheep and oxen, birds above,
The seas forgotten not.

O LORD, our Lord, how awesome is
Your Name in all the earth;
And high above the heav'nly realm
Your glory shineth forth!
